NASA Earth

SCIENCE IN ACTION COMIC STRIP CONTEST

DEADLINE: August 31, 2022

High School Students and Adults are eligible to participate. Scientists, artists and astronauts will judge the artwork, and our esteemed Finals Judges will select the winners! Winning art will receive great visibility as NASA and SciArt Exchange share it via digital communication and in-person displays that inspire and educate everyone about the impact NASA's science in action has here on Earth. Winners will also receive a personalized trophy and certificate.

Use your comic strip artwork to tell one of these three success stories:

- Palau fish stocks in danger - satellite data to the rescue!
- Satellite data and savvy scientists save civilians from worsening wildfire hazards!
- Citizens of Thailand avoid harmful air with 'quality' satellite data!

Embracing Our Differences

2022 EXHIBIT EMBRACING OUR DIFFERENCES CONTEST

DEADLINE: October 1, 2022

Artists possess a powerful tool to evoke social change. Without uttering a single word, they can enlighten, educate and affect change around the world. Embracing Our Differences invites you to participate in creating a society where diversity is embraced and individuality is celebrated. Become a part of this change by submitting your original art to Embracing Our Differences and its annual international outdoor juried art exhibit.

Save the Frogs

SAVE THE FROGS! ART CONTEST

DEADLINE: November 1, 2022

Amphibian populations worldwide are in the midst of a mass extinction crisis, yet many people are completely unaware! We need your help in getting the word out: we encourage all nature lovers to seek out their inner frog artist and participate in the SAVE THE FROGS! Art Contest!

The SAVE THE FROGS! Art Contest invites you to create your coolest frog artwork. The contest raises awareness of the amphibian extinction problem by getting people involved and interested, and the artwork is used on t-shirts, stickers and posters, and in greeting cards and books, to both publicize our cause and raise money for SAVE THE FROGS! amphibian conservation efforts.

Wildlife Forever

SONGBIRD ART CONTEST

DEADLINE: November 30, 2022

The Art of Conservation® Songbird Art Contest™ is an art competition hosted by Wildlife Forever, focused on sharing the wonder and species diversity of North American songbirds. Building off the successful Wildlife Forever Fish Art Contest® and inspired by the legacy of artist and conservationist Jay Norwood Darling, participants will learn about a North American Songbird Species and compete for prizes and international recognition.

Participants are required to submit an original piece of artwork accompanied by an essay detailing the unique characteristics of their chosen bird species and their conservation needs. Participants will have until November 30th of each year to submit their entry to the contest by mail to Wildlife Forever. A judging event will be held in December with avian biologists, local birders, and partner organizations.

US Kids Magazine

HUMPTY DUMPTY AND JACK AND JILL COVER CONTEST

DEADLINE: February 1, 2023

At U.S. Kids Magazines, we believe in encouraging children's creativity and supporting our schools' art programs. Art offers children a unique means of expression, capturing their passions and emotions and fostering the exploration of new ideas, subject matter, and cultures.

Each year, we invite readers and students from around the country to share their creative talents by entering our annual cover contest. The winning entry is featured on the front cover of Jack and Jill or Humpty Dumpty magazine, with second-, third-place, and Readers' Choice winners' art showcased inside the same issue. In addition, U.S. Kids also recognizes winners' art departments and teachers with cash awards to help support their programs.

This year, we're asking you to think about what pets do when their humans are out. Do the dogs take up art? Do the cats play video games? What happens? Draw your theories and share them with us! For contest rules and how to enter, CLICK HERE.
